The future of business planning powered by AI

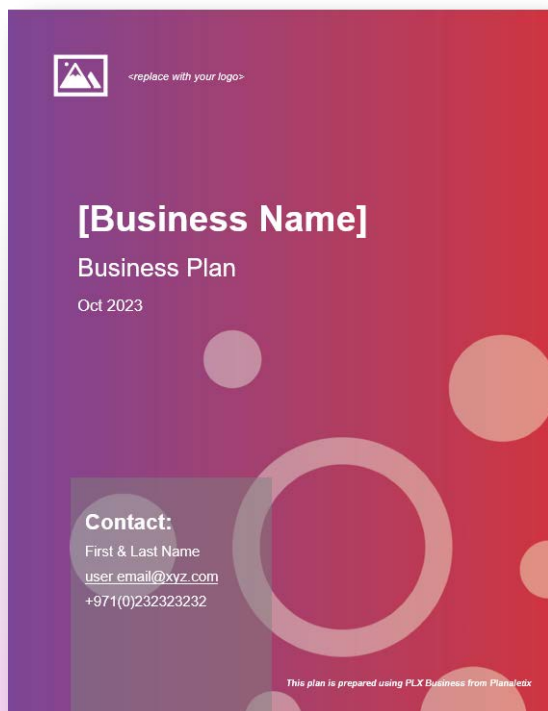

PLX Business simulates a virtual business meeting with 3 consultants (AI Avatars); A business consultant who guides you to build the strategic plan step by step, a marketing consultant who conducts the market studies and propose marketing activities, and a financial consultant who makes the financial projections to ensure that your business will be profitable. As you go through the meeting, your plan will be generated, and you can customize any part to fit your flavor and directions. By the end of the meeting, download your MS Word version for further customization.
